

Ralph Duke Named

New Manager of Safeway's

16 May 1985

Ralph Duke

Announcement was made Monday to the appointment of Ralph L. Duke as the new Manager of the Heber Safeway store. He replaced Jim Allfrey who was transferred to the West

Jordan Safeway store.

Also promoted was Rick Coleman who now becomes the Assistant Store Manager and Steve Provost to the position of Grocery Manager.

Ralph who is a life-time resident of Heber City began his Safeway career as a high school student in 1967, starting as a bagger. He has had a variety of experiences having held many different positions in the Safeway organization.

Ralph is a graduate of Wasatch High School and after completion of an LDS mission to Australia he attended Ricks College and Utah Technical College. He is married to the former Kim Benshoff and they are the parents of four children. He is currently serving as Bishop of the Heber First Ward and has been involved in civic activities.

Ralph and Safeway look forward to providing you with friendly service and meeting your shopping needs.
